FOUR YEARS

It came upon us, oh so suddenly
Everything new, tall, large and exciting.
Experiences we'd never known
But eventually became our own.

Now at ease, going through day to day
Cycles, very methodically.
Nothing was new,
For now the feeling of belonging was true.

Times are changing
The people and places are the same,
But our feelings look toward tomorrow
The very new people and different experiences
Learning to live in a new environment with a different view of life.

But as we look back we've learned so much
Yet have so much more to learn.
We're thankful for our memories
That we can hold with us as long as we wish.

Dedication

James R. Perron, Jr.

We, the Class of 1979 have dedicated our yearbook to Jimmy. Since we all shared so many good times with Jimmy, we are fortunate to hold only fond memories of him in our hearts and in our minds. If we could all pattern ourselves to be an extension of Jimmy, our own lives would be far more meaningful, and we might all work to achieve the traits and characteristics which Jimmy had that made us all love him so much. We might also hold our heads high and reach for the future . . . in the dedication to Jimmy.
